

Q Was Jim Moxley present?

A He certainly was.

Q Was any objection made by Jim Moxley at that time to the appointment of Horace Williams?

A Not a word from Jim.

Q At that time did Jim Moxley say anything about owning this property?

A They said if anybody had anything against it, speak up, and nobody said nothing.

Q Did Everett ever discuss this property with you in the presence of George or James?

A No.

Q At the time of his death he was in possession of the premises, is that correct?

A That is correct.

Q He lived in the house?

A He certainly did.

Q Had he lived there continually from the time he moved into possession? A Yes.

Q Had he done any farming of the place?

A Well, probably raised a little corn, something like that, but I think that was about all. He had a garden.

Q What has Jim Moxley done with this 12-acre tract since the date of Everett's death?

A What do you mean has done with it?

Q Is he living on it or just what?

A No, he's got it rented.

Q Do you know the name of the tenant?

A No, I don't.

Q Has Jim Moxley ever told you the tract is his - the 12-acre tract?

A No, he never told me. He told my brother but he never told me. I haven't seen my brother since that time. I don't know
